PROPHECIES ABOUT THE UNITED STATES

SEEN FROM EUROPE

Could it be that American Christianity is a heresy?

PROPHECIES IN THE USA

In this text we will explore the reason for God's abandonment of the USA, drawing on four apocalyptic texts related to the USA.

Text extracted from: Catholic prophecy: The coming punishment. Yves Dupont.

15. St. Hildegard (Continuation). “A powerful wind will rise in the north carrying heavy fog and the densest of dust by divine command, and it will fill their throats and eyes so that they will cease their savagery and be stricken with a great fear. Before the comet comes, many nations, the good excepted, will be scourged by want and famine. The great nation in the ocean that is inhabitated by people of different tribes and descent will be devastated by an [sic.] earthquake, storm, and tidal wave. It will be divided and, in great part, submerged. That nation will also have many misfortunes at sea and lose its colonies. By its tremendous pressure the comet will force much out of the ocean and flood many countries, causing much want and many plagues. All coastal cities will live in fear, and many of them will be destroyed by tidal waves, and most living creatures will be killed, and even those who escape will die from horrible diseases, For in none of those cities does a person live according to the laws of God.

Firs text

Q. - Will the United States then become disunited states?
E. -... That's not all, because friends will become enemies. And the hotbeds of war will no longer be contained. On the backs of the domestic empire, the Redskins will reclaim their mountains. And history will have to be rewritten.

Second text

Q. - How will the countries of the world be governed after the Third World Conflict?
E. - At the beginning there will be enormous chaos... And so much desperation. When a citizen of Los Angeles meets a citizen of Tucson, he will throw his arms around him and they will ask each other: "How did you save yourself?" Between the two cities there will be desert.
Then life will win once again. But before reaching serenity, time and time will be necessary... All the peoples of the earth will have to accept the control of superior minds... Nothing will be left to chance... Nothing will be to the advantage or disadvantage of one or the other... The "Great Accountant" will shed new light ... And every man will have to live in function of all. And everyone will have to live in function of the individual.

Third text

Q. - What will be said in this bulletin?

E. -... The bulletin has already been written... Listen:

"The belligerent armies have laid down their arms, shocked and astonished before the horrendous cemetery that stretches from one pole to the other.

The "Reconstruction Headquarters" orders the survivors to abandon their homes, infected by atomic radiation, seeking shelter in caves and ravines. They also order them to eat only roots, removing them from at least twenty centimeters deep. All survivors are required to drink only milk, using the few surviving animals. Every water source is infected.

Every survivor has the duty to join the nearest community, to establish new human relationships. When a human being—even a very dear one—shows signs of atomic contamination, he or she must be eliminated without hesitation.

In the face of this immense catastrophe, the remnants of what were once world powers bow their tattered and bloody banners to the Eternal, imploring mercy.

Conclusion

It is incomprehensible that, given the United States' predominantly Christian nature, prophecies concerning the end of World War III point to it as one of the countries, or perhaps the country, most severely punished by war and natural disasters.

Could it be that American Christianity is a heresy? How is it possible that no one is interceding for it? (In Europe, the Virgin says, "In the end, my Immaculate Heart will triumph.") Could it be that American Christians are being deceived in some way?. Where does manifest destiny stand? And finally, is the United States still in time to reverse the situation?

ROOSEVELT'S ESOTERIC MESSAGES

When Stars Marry Stars

The esoteric message reported here dates back to 1965. Twenty years had passed since the death of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, 32nd President of the United States of America, but his esoteric Entity - writes the medium T. F. Sullivan - was endowed with an exceptional energy charge.

Question - Did the United States really benefit from the last war?

Entity -... I was already at peace when peace touched men... The human and economic cost of every war is always too high to justify the conflict.

In the last war, a gross error was made in the evaluation of alliances. One form of violence was annihilated to open the doors to another. That is, Nazism and Fascism were annihilated to pave the way for Marxism... And this is like treating a cold while neglecting pneumonia...

Q. - Does Marxism really represent a global danger?

E. - Permanent revolution is like a steamroller: everything in its path will be inexorably crushed... And so a choice must be made: either let ourselves be flattened, or rise up against the steamroller that levels everything: abilities, ideas, feelings, intentions, work, and property.

Q. - Will capitalism succeed in halting the march of the Marxist steamroller?
E. - For a long time, we will be playing hunter and fox. But at a certain point, the red fox will come out into the open...
That will be the moment when two hunters will shoot at the same time...
Q. - Will the victory be for capitalism or Marxism?
E. - Both will be defeated, because both will emerge bled dry. On the other hand, it's right that it be this way, because, if the shoots of a new era were to emerge from these tidal roots, history would repeat itself... After the final frontier 2, nothing will be repeated, I pray. Man will be new, life will be new... everything will be new. And the novelties will be so profound that man today cannot even imagine them.
Q. - How will the countries of the world be governed after the Third World Conflict?
E. - At the beginning there will be enormous chaos... And so much desperation.
When a citizen of Los Angeles meets a citizen of Tucson, he will throw his arms around him and they will ask each other: "How did you save yourself?"
Between the two cities there will be desert.

Then life will win once again. But before reaching serenity, time and time will be necessary... All the peoples of the earth will have to accept the control of superior minds... Nothing will be left to chance... Nothing will be to the advantage or disadvantage of one or the other... The "Great Accountant" will shed new light ... And every man will have to live in function of all. And everyone will have to live in function of the individual.

The Bulletin of the Apocalypse

Here we find ourselves faced with an unusual message:
an Entity calling itself Franklin Delano Roosevelt dictates the "peace bulletin" at the end of the Third World War. The American medium V. L. Gillers, shortly after the esoteric contact - which occurred in 1972 - said that he "felt so much concern and anxiety for the future of humanity."
Question - Are we heading toward war or toward peace?
Entity - Catastrophe lies ahead... First there will be fires... then there will be conflagration. And this time no part of the earth will be able to say it is excluded.

.. It will be a bit like the voice of a man shouting in the middle of a field, spreading everywhere...
Q. - Who will be the winner... and who will be defeated?...
E. - Everyone will be winners and everyone will be defeated... We can really speak of "everyone" because those left will be so few... At a certain point, friends and enemies will find themselves at the same table to write the "peace bulletin"... But this will be the bulletin of the Apocalypse.
Q. - What will be said in this bulletin?
E. -... The bulletin has already been written... Listen: "The belligerent armies have laid down their arms, shocked and astonished before the horrendous cemetery that stretches from one pole to the other. The "Reconstruction Headquarters" orders the survivors to abandon their homes, infected by atomic radiation, seeking shelter in caves and ravines. They also order them to eat only roots, removing them from at least twenty centimeters deep. All survivors are required to drink only milk, using the few surviving animals. Every water source is infected.
Every survivor has the duty to join the nearest community, to establish new human relationships. When a human being—even a very dear one—shows signs of atomic contamination, he or she must be eliminated without hesitation.

In the face of this immense catastrophe, the remnants of what were once world powers bow their tattered and bloody banners to the Eternal, imploring mercy.
Q. - Will the reconstruction begin with Western or Eastern civilization?
E. - The two civilizations will be surpassed... It will be the civilization of the spirit that will triumph... But in certain moments we will see the reemergence of the wisdom of the East... In fact, we will live a primarily spiritual life. Convictions, deceptions, formalisms will disappear... Woe to the man who acts in life. Everyone will have their part and everyone will be as transparent as air.
Q. - Will human organization, after the year 2000, still be like ours?
E. - In the early days, we will grope... When we reach the halfway point, the family will be completely transformed. There will be no more orphans, and there will be no more plagues... Selfish feelings will be overcome. The child will no longer say "This is my father." And the man will no longer say "This is my son." The son and the father will, in fact, be part of a single cell. And when this cell suffers, the whole body will suffer... But suffering, joy, Love, will be different things.

You will see two moons in the cycle.

This esoteric message was obtained through the American medium G. E. Charris and dates back to 1976. It was a mediumistic session that had a follow-up. The Roosevelt Entity subsequently established other contacts with this medium.

Question: Will the United States of America still be leader of the world?

Entity: Everything is wearing out... Even the United States will one day begin to lose its stars. But before that, many strange things will occur, which terrestrial science will not be able to explain.

Q: Can you reveal anything to us about this?

E: You will see two moons appear in the sky... You will see the coasts of Florida dance. You will see monsters emerge from the seawaters that will have the voice of man.

Q. - The man of the year 2000 will treasure experiences, but will you travel through the centuries?

E. - Most of these experiences have only served to fuel selfishness and pride. They will therefore be forgotten... Many things will be destroyed, and many others will be built from nothing... The man of the end1 needs many things.

The man of the beginning1 2 will need few things... But they will be different things.
Q. - Will there be room in the future for increased private initiative?
E. - Everything will be based on private initiative... But human creativity can only be considered when it is for the benefit of all humanity.
Q. - Will we then see workaholics and parasites?
E. - There will be neither one nor the other. The birth of man will not be left to chance... Men who approach the banquet of life will be endowed with a conscience that you cannot understand today... In the New Age there will be no room for snake oil salesmen, careerists, and swindlers.
Q. - Will the third Millennium then be the Millennium of the superman?
E. - It will be the Millennium of the spirit... But this spirit will only be comfortable in certain clothes... Clothes that are unsuitable will be returned to time.
Q. - Will the horror of death ever cease?
E. - Yes. Death will be considered a transmigration... The great transformation of the new man will be given by the fact that his every thought will be a function of the journey he will one day make toward the Eternal... Today man behaves as if he had to put down roots in the earth. Tomorrow he will behave as if the earth, life... were only a moment of true life.

Q. - Will there not therefore be a rebellion of Nature against death, against decay?
E. - The man of your time loves his clothes too much... The man of tomorrow will love his spirit and will always remember that the flesh is a garment lent to him... A garment that will have to be returned, sooner or later... like all the things one has in hand, one will have to use them well. But woe to those who give in to attachment to everything that is destined to perish.
Q. - Will the average human lifespan be destined to increase in the future?
E. - Let a few moons pass... Man will live twice as long as he does today...
Q. - And will his life be happy?
E. - Serenity and happiness will be an inalienable right for every man. But before we can achieve this, it is necessary to destroy everything that has destroyed happiness and the joy of living on earth.

Four Horizons

The English medium G. Callerson had this esoteric contact in 1976. He later had other contacts, with an Entity who always called himself Franklin Delano Roosevelt. But these are contacts that are not particularly important.

Question: Will the man of the 21st century suffer from the same diseases as the man of today?
Entity: No... The causes of many diseases will be located... and they will be defeated.
Q: Will man win the battle against cancer?
E: Yes... Many cancers will be prevented with "acoustic insulation."
Q: So the cause of this disease is noise?
E: In some cases, yes... There are noises that bombard the cells, causing their anarchy. But man is now so polluted that he could no longer live without his daily acoustic poison.
Q. - Will there be new diseases that will afflict humanity?
E. - Over time, plagues unknown to us will arise... As man manages to defeat one disease... a new one will appear. The fight will continue even in the Millennium before you. But this time it will be an intelligent fight, which will take its cue from Nature... Today we talk too much about science and too little about natural forces... Many people stricken by even rare diseases have within them what is sufficient to overcome them. Instead, they go around poisoning themselves with medicines.

around the only valid means,
Q. - Will the man of the year 2000 be able to immediately achieve serenity and inner peace?
E. - ... No... I will have to proceed gradually... There will be four horizons of the Millennium: first, the horizon of serenity will open, then the horizon of happiness. The third will be the horizon of bliss, and the fourth will be the horizon of pure spirit. At this point, there will no longer be a clear barrier between earthly life, which is matter, and universal life, which is spirit.

Europe Year 2050

Ludwig Kranz, a German medium, had two mediumistic contacts with Adolf Hitler, between 1965 and 1975. The most significant parts of these contacts are reported here.

Question - What will be the future of Europe?

Entity - All geographical changes will have to be remade. New nations will arise and others will disappear. Europe will become a living creature. But first it will have to die. And it will die after a brief agony...A subtle pestilence will arrive from the East... A ray of poisonous sunshine will burn the old branches.

Q. - Will we then witness the fragmentation of Europe?

E. - History will have two phases. We will witness the fragmentation . But then everything will be put back together. And from the rubble of the old, the new will arise. It will have a crown, it will have a flag, it will be an empire.

Q. - Will Europe be destined to lead, not to be led?

E. - It will be the heart of the Europe that will count. In 2050, Europe will be at the center of global interests. The glories of the past will resurface. And they will be the focus of curiosity, first, and of study later.

Q. - What will the history of the United States of America be?
E. - ...The stars will lose... one by one. Then there will be a revolution. And this time it will be the South that brings the North to its knees. The Statue of Liberty will be destroyed... Only then will we see its interior and understand that it was completely rotten.
Q. - Will the United States then become disunited states?
E. -... That's not all, because friends will become enemies. And the hotbeds of war will no longer be contained. On the backs of the domestic empire, the Redskins will reclaim their mountains. And history will have to be rewritten.
Q. - Will China and Japan have a role in the formation of the new Europe?
E. - Japan will go from a crisis of wealth to a crisis of poverty. Earthquakes and political instability will end up bleeding it dry. China will absorb the vices, but not the virtues, of the West. The last inarxist will take refuge in China. And when capitalism has passed, the last capitalist will take refuge in China... Europe will return to dictate the law. But this time, it will be a law that truly respects human dignity. In the year 2050, men will begin to feel like men.
